Vel's Feature in Black Enterprise Magazine

Orlando, FL (January 1, 2009) - The Central Florida business community is very proud to recognize Vel Johnson, President, Vasaj Communications, for her current appearance in the January 2009 issue of Black Enterprise Magazine.

After only two years of existence, Vasaj Communications is rapidly gaining the respect of leading authorities, clients, and peers as the "go to resource" for public information and corporate communications. Appearing as an intermediary for the greater Orlando business community, Vel describes some key resources that have enabled her to develop and nurture a successful business. Vel also sheds detailed insights into a few dining and lodging venues that yield tranquil retreats for business professionals to unwind after hours.

In addition to the Black Enterprise feature, pages 90 and 91, Vel's company was selected as a recipient of the Emerging Business of the Year award for 2008 by the African American Chamber of Commerce of Central Florida.

"I really enjoy my vocation for bringing more exposure to individuals, organizations, and municipalities. It is my fundamental belief that, the more the awareness we build for our clients, the greater their opportunity for enhanced bottom line profit," states Vel.
